San Antonio Police Explorers Win Big at Competition

On October 17, 2009, San Antonio Police Explorers competed in the 2009 Alamo Area Law Enforcement Explorer Competition and had great success. Two 4-member teams from the South Patrol Station, two teams from West Patrol and one team from the Prue Rd. Substation participated in the competition. The competitive teams numbered 33 from all over the State of Texas. The competitive events ranged from the proper handling of domestic violence calls to the proper processing of crime scenes. Below are the results of the explorers hard work and commitment to police excellence:

PRUE RD SUBSTATION EXPLORERS

1st Place overall team
Three- 1st place medals
One- 2nd place medal

WEST PATROL SUBSTATION EXPLORERS

2nd place overall team
Two- 1st place medals
Two- 3rd place medals

SOUTH PATROL SUBSTATION EXPLORERS

Two- 2nd place medals
Three- 3rd place medals

San Antonio Police Explorers won a total of 15 trophies and represented the SAPD in an exemplary fashion. Chief McManus said "the talent shown by these fine young men and women is a true statement to their hard work and commitment".
